CALLED TO WORK

20th Anniversary

November 2016

Called To Work started on 11/16/1996

AT&T

Called To Work began as an annual workplace Christianity conference founded by Elaine Kung, a manager at AT&T, and hosted by Rutgers Community Christian Church in Somerset, NJ.

Called To Work is named after the talk title of Karen Johnson Moy, our first speaker.

The conference continued for 16 years

1996	2004
1997	2005
1998	2006
1999	2007
2000	2008
2001	2009
2002	2010
2003	2011

In the fall of 2001, in the aftermath of 9/11, Called To Work began to collaborate with Northeast Christians At Work (www.ChristAtWork.org).

Drew Crandall, President of NCAW, became Called To Work co-chair, emcee and speaker.

After 2011....

The Called To Work conference was placed on hold. Elaine transferred to Texas, and Drew focused on honoring his dying father.

Since then, Called To Work has maintained a virtual presence via emails and the website (www.CalledToWork.org).

By 2013, Elaine had settled in Texas, Drew's father passed away. The Lord led Elaine to form a workplace Christianity team and Called To Work track at AFC's Chinese Missions Convention (CMC) in Baltimore.

This team met at CMC 2013, started working together via conference calls and emails. The team includes several people heavily involved in AFC.

Called To Work partners closely with AFC, offers workplace ministry workshops at CMC every year across 3 regions in Baltimore, San Diego, Houston since 2013 – expanded from coast to coast.
